

'In Search of Mozart'

Documentary film.

The film which is 128 minutes long commemorates the 250th anniversary of Mozart's birth. It is about Mozart's life and his story is told through his music, the letters he wrote to members of his family and performances by some of the greatest classical musicians of today. It is narrated by Juliet Stevenson, with Samuel West as the voice of Mozart and featuring over 70 of the world's greatest performers including: Renee Fleming, Gerald Finley, Magdalena Kozena, Lang Lang, Louis Langree, Julian Rachlin and Roger Norrington.

The film achieved huge success - the World Premiere sold out at the Barbican in London; in Australia the film has become one of the top 50 best selling documentaries of all time and it was also selected for the Full Frame Documentary Film Festival in Sao Paulo and Rio de Janeiro in March/April this year. Press attention has also been extremely good here in the United Kingdom.
